Whiteboard package

Datasheet

- Present your ideas in a professional way on an interactive whiteboard.

- Make annotations to your digital documents and e-mail or print directly from the screen.

- Connect interactively with your customers via your preferred communication software.

The use of an interactive solution in your daily work makes sharing information easier and more professional. It also helps promote creativity and efficient communication within your team.

Toshiba's Whiteboard Package is an all-in-one solution for easy installation. It serves as a presentation screen, white board and video conferencing system – bundled in one product. Not only will it add a modern touch to your meetings, it will also give you maximum flexibility to collaborate with remote teams.

Toshiba's Whiteboard Package comes in various sizes ranging from 49", with wall mount or optional floor stand for even more flexibility .
